Though considered a public broadcasting entity, EBS gets most of its yearly budget from advertisements and sales revenue. In 2012, 72.1% of its revenue came from textbook sales, publications and ad revenues on its TV Radio and internet platforms, while the rest came from TV license fees (EBS gets 3% of the total License Fee being collected by the Korean Broadcasting System) and government grants.^[1]

- EBS 1TV — EBS' main terrestrial channel for premium documentaries, preschool and youth program. (Channel 10.1)
- EBS 2TV — EBS' second terrestrial channel. (Channel 10.2)
- EBS FM — A EBS' radio channel, the station focuses mainly on language learning. The actual CSAT listening comprehension examinations are broadcast on this station annually at 8:40 AM and 1:10 PM on the day of the CSAT.
- EBS Plus 1 (subscription television) — The channel focuses greatly around the high school test curriculum and offers programming to complement and amplify the student's in-school education.
- EBS Plus 2 (subscription television) — The main focus of this channel is "lifelong" learning, with various programs for younger and older viewers.
- EBS English (subscription television) — This is the network's English education channel, covering kids from kindergarten to grade 12.
- EBS Kids (subscription television) — EBS' children's channel; formerly a simulcast of EBS Plus 1.
